In 1998, Sybase did some major remodeling -- hiring a new cost-conscious CEO (John Chen), reorganizing into four divisions focused on growth markets, and refreshing much of its product line...

...environment for creating dynamic e-commerce brokering architectures (e-speak), and a consolidated storage line. HP'S new focus even extends to financing options: The company is the first major infrastructure ...

...per-transaction and revenue-sharing alternatives, which may be attractive to smaller companies.

The new HP is the old HP: entrepreneurial, agile, and focused on core markets. Results have been modest thus far -- and Fiorina ...

AND DON'T FORGET...

Ariba Inc.: Ariba's expertise in creating B2B commerce communities...
